

THE SHEPHERD'S VOICE

Last week at St. Robert...

- We canceled school for the 12th time this school year!
- I had the privilege to read another story on Facebook Live...this one inspired by the Red Glasses Movement and Black History Month.
- The ice storm knocked out the power at school and church twice!
- The teachers and students reported "stir crazy" behavior in their homes!
- Our second try at Catholic Schools Week was cancelled again!

Say prayers that we continue to have a full week of school this week and safe travel conditions!
